

May 2025, the Month of Truth

In earlier magazines, Eric Huysmans has already written about the great significance of May 12th, when the Wesak Full Moon occurs. This is the date on which the Spiritual Hierarchy gathers in large numbers for their centennial Conclave. The Masters then make a decision regarding their emergence under the leadership of the Christ, and a direct impulse is sent from Shamballa. This is of great importance for the future of humanity over the next hundred years on the path toward the Aquarian Age.

In the twenty-four books by Alice Bailey, written between 1919 and 1949 and mentally dictated to her by Master Djwhal Khul (DK), the year 2025 is mentioned no less than fourteen times. That must be a very important year if a Master refers to it so often a hundred years in advance. And indeed, it is important. Without exaggeration, I would even go so far as to say that this year — more precisely, this very month of May — marks the most significant event for humanity since 1925. Every 25th year of the century, the Spiritual Hierarchy gathers in great numbers, and the Masters, under the leadership of Sanat Kumara, the Buddha, the Christ, the Manu, and the Mahachohan, will decide whether their emergence into the physical realm of the Earth in the coming years or decades is possible. I have written about this earlier in this magazine as well as in other publications, all available at www.sensability.nl.

The fact that the Spiritual Hierarchy may possibly decide this month to appear more openly among humanity is of great significance. It implies that the Masters consider us ready for this contact and capable of working more consciously with Their inspiration and guidance. The past decades have been a period of preparation for this possible appearance. Now the moment has arrived when the balance is weighed. Are there enough people striving for unity, goodwill, and service? Enough people who can respond to the call of the Soul and stand in the light? If so, then a great spiritual acceleration can begin, which will impact all areas of society.

Of course, we should not be naïve and think that everything will suddenly change overnight. The transformation of humanity is a long process. But such a decision by the Hierarchy will give a powerful boost to that process and offer new hope, courage, and strength to all those working for a better world. Let us, therefore, open ourselves to the energy of this special time, meditate, pray, and be still inwardly, so we can sense the signals of the Soul and cooperate with the greater whole.

The Emergence of the Masters into the Physical Plane

I was initially quite struck by the idea that the Masters would emerge into the physical realm. That seemed rather far-fetched to me. What would that even look like? Are we going to see Jesus again, or even the Christ who began to overshadow Jesus at the age of thirty? Well, no, that's obviously not how it's going to happen. But then how?

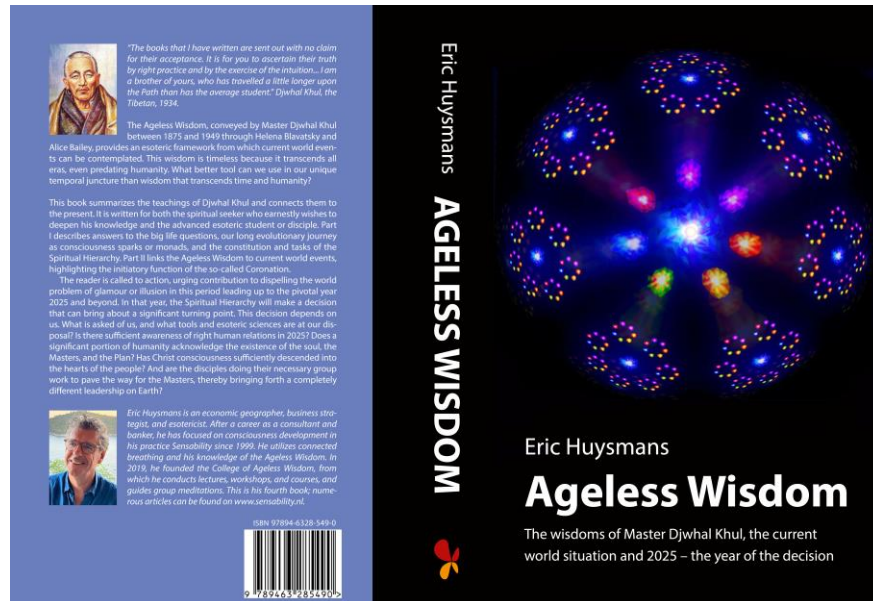

As usual, DK doesn't provide many concrete details about the form this emergence will take. He dictated two books to Bailey on the subject: The Externalisation of the Hierarchy and The Reappearance of the Christ. But nowhere does it become entirely clear what these appearances will actually look like. What I gather is that several, if not many, Masters will manifest as 'ordinary' people in leadership positions. That would of course be a great blessing for humanity, since current leadership is, for the most part, corrupt and focused on power and the self-interest of a small elite. The Masters, on the other hand, are of goodwill and direct that will toward the good of ALL. I'll return to that point. But first, more about what DK does say regarding the physical emergence.

In Chapter 21 of my book Ageless Wisdom, I share and comment on the following quotes from Alice Bailey's books:

"The doors of the Hierarchy will open (symbolically speaking), and the Christ with His disciples will come once a point of balance has been reached between those who stand for separation, materialism, and totalitarianism, and those who stand for the freedom of the human soul, for the rights of the individual, for brotherhood, and right human relations.”

He literally says here that the Christ “will come” with His disciples — but only once balance has been achieved between totalitarians or materialists on one side and true democrats or spiritual individuals on the other.

He also says:

“The Hierarchy is drawing closer to humanity and will eventually appear in the physical plane, not only through the intention of the Hierarchy itself but also through the invocative demand of humanity and the powerful vibration that emanates from it.”

Here he emphasizes the great importance of group work through meditations in which the Masters are invoked and a strong vibration is generated or evoked.

“It is the responsibility of the Christ to prepare esoterically for the physical or material appearance of the Hierarchy.”

“The Hierarchy is striving to manifest the Christ and Their appearance as a fully functioning body on Earth.”

“The appearance of the Hierarchy is still confined to mental levels, but when the thought-form of the exoteric presence of the Hierarchy has been created by humanity itself, and its invocative cry is intense enough, it will appear in the physical realm.”

These are all strong indications that the Masters will indeed emerge into our physical world. That's pretty powerful, right? And exciting!

Masterful Leadership

But what does this mean? Well, among other things, that there will finally be serious efforts to establish right human relations and proper relationships with the other kingdoms of nature (minerals, plants, animals, and the Earth itself). This includes working towards a fair distribution of the abundance the Earth provides: (free) energy, clean drinking water, healthy food, and comfortable shelter for EVERYONE; that true brotherhood will prevail, in which all people treat each other peacefully and as equals, recognizing one another as part of one consciousness—the true meaning of the now-perverted and misused word “inclusivity”; and that humanity will treat the Earth and the environment with decency and true sustainability, rather than the grotesquely distorted way the term “sustainable” has been implemented in recent years.

Dissipating Totalitarianism

It will also mean putting a stop to the rise of totalitarianism. This rise has become painfully clear in recent years for those who are able and willing to see it. Countries like China and Russia have long been seen as examples of this, and rightly so. But it is shocking to now see alarming totalitarian tendencies in the supposedly democratic USA and Europe as well—through assaults on our freedoms under the guise of medical tyranny; orchestrated “pandemics”; violations of bodily integrity through vaccine coercion; climate deception; increasing control via plans for digital ID and CBDC; propaganda and reality inversion in the mainstream media; censorship of dissenting opinions; war-mongering with the material and immaterial costs falling on us; fear-mongering; polarization on many fronts; threats of banning political parties and even cancelling democratic election results (as in Romania), or threats to do so (Germany). All under the pretence of “protecting democracy,” a grotesque inversion of reality. See also the April edition for more on this. Incidentally, DK says that nowhere in our world is there yet true democracy. The current democracies are but weak reflections, still in their infancy, and not worthy of the name as they are essentially disguised totalitarian systems based on a materialistic worldview.

True Democracy and Spirituality

By true democracy, DK means standing up for individual freedom and right human relations. According to him, these are based on:

“Justice, the recognition of inherited rights, and opportunities for everyone—regardless of race, colour, or creed—, the suppression of crime and selfishness through proper education, and the recognition of a divine governing intelligence in which humanity lives, moves, and has its being.”

Especially the latter is of paramount importance. True democracy requires spirituality. Our true spiritual identity must be recognized—that is, the divine within us (the immanent God) and the guidance from a higher power (the transcendent God). This relates to nothing less than the answer to the biggest of the Big Questions: who are we? In Ageless Wisdom, I explain that as long as we are human, we are a soul—but in essence, we are a monad, spirit, or divine spark, on a long journey of consciousness development.

If we don't know who we are, where we come from, where we're going, and what the meaning of life is, we remain wanderers in the desert, easily manipulated by totalitarians who find us easy prey. We will continue clinging to external authorities because we do not (yet) recognize our own inner authority.

But fortunately, there is certainly a growing spirituality in the world after years of dry materialism and/or sentimental religiosity. A spirituality in which people seek their True Self and attempt to connect with it—a direct connection without intermediaries like religious power structures and their often-authoritarian interpreters. This latter is a remnant of the dying Piscean Age, governed by the sixth ray of devotion and abstract idealism. In the Aquarian Age, influenced by the seventh ray of Order and Ceremonial Magic, we will begin to connect directly with the various layers or fields of our Self. This is religion in the literal sense of the word. The Latin “religare” means “to bind” or “to connect.” This is the essence of the New World Religion as described by DK—not a new institution, but a direct connection with the spirit or monad that we are.

The Approaching Age of Aquarius

The decision of the Hierarchy on the 12th of May will also have a major impact on the rapidly approaching Aquarian Age. Although the energy of Aquarius will not fully replace the Piscean energy until 2117, the shift between these two ages has been underway for over four hundred years, and the energy of Aquarius is increasingly displacing that of Pisces. The new energy of Aquarius brings with it a completely different form of group consciousness than we have known during the Piscean Age. In the past two thousand years, we have mostly followed leaders, prophets, and gurus. The coming era calls on people to take personal responsibility, to work together with others in group formation, and to align their lives with the divine Plan. This is not always easy, but it is the only way forward for humanity.

It is said that the Age of Aquarius can either be a time of mass initiation, technologically driven freedom, and the blossoming of the soul of humanity—or an era of mass enslavement, technologically driven control and regulation—a mummification of the human spirit. The seeds of both possibilities are already clearly visible: on one hand the growing spiritualism described above, and on the other the advancing totalitarianism. Without a doubt, both will manifest in some form.

Of all human activities on the planet, politics should be the field that commands the most respect and reverence. It is the place where the collective vision and vibration of a civilization ought to be preserved, unfolded, and passed on. But in today's world, it is likely the domain with the least respect. This vast discrepancy tells us that we are on the brink of a radical transformation. The heart of humanity now realizes that it's not about one party or another, this or that politician—but that true leadership must be sought entirely outside the current political stage. A global initiation is at the doorstep, and the coming three decades will bring a complete turnaround, hopefully leading by 2050 to a broad recognition and embrace of spiritual governance, driven by the externalized Masters.

Currently, most—if not all—of our political structures resemble deeply dysfunctional families. Imagine, for instance, a family in which the parents spend most of their time arguing, trying to drag the children into their power struggle, wasting enormous resources on campaigns to replace each other as “leader” every four years, and blaming each other for everything that went wrong in the previous four years. That's how our current politicians behave—and we are the children suffering under it and allowing ourselves to be led by it.

That must end. It is high time we embrace our own spirituality, start building true democracies, and collectively invoke and call forth or evoke the assistance of the Masters—through group meditations among other things—to pave the way for them to step forward after the Conclave on May 12. That is why this month of May can rightly be called the Month of Truth!
